magnitudes. So they're not going to be able to stand up to me. Oh, they can look mad now, but they run on emotion, and when the emotion has dissipated itself, they're through. I don't operate on emotion. I can feel entirely different tomorrow from the way that I feel today, but my actions are not based on my feelings. So I will deliver. But I'm not going to tell you every bill that I'm going to deliver on. We don't want to take all the zest and spice out of life. Variety is the spice of life.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Time, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Thank you. Senator Schimek.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes. Mr. President and members, I offered the amendment so that we could maybe have the discussion on the bottleneck, I guess. And I believe that if we had adopted that last amendment, we could probably move on. And in effect, that last amendment isn't that onerous for those of you who are concerned about ag workers, because we had previously adopted the Quandahl amendment, which said that any person violating this section is guilty of a traffic infraction and shall be fined $50. Well, if they're going under 25 miles an hour, it wouldn't apply anyway. So it seems to me that if that's your big concern, that concern could be met by going under 25 miles an hour. The same is true with a parade. I think that we're going to be on this bill a long time, or we're not going to move this bill, or whatever. And it just seems to me that that's a reasonable thing to do. And I would hope that you would reconsider the vote on this amendment. And I would hope that there would be some other people who voted for the amendment who might speak on it, so that it doesn't look like a (laugh) Ernie and DiAnna filibuster or something here, because it's not. I'm very, very much in favor Senator Aguilar's bill. It would be a shame if we didn't pass this bill this year, I believe, because it will do a lot of good. And so I'd just ask you to reconsider and think about the vote. Thank you.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Thank you, Senator Schimek. Senator Hartnett.
